Subject: Permission request regarding ISMB 2010 conference workshop PLoS Computational Biology publication of PLoS Postcards

Dear Author(s):

On behalf of the International Society for Computational Biology (ISCB) we look forward to your presentation at ISMB 2010, July 11 - July 13 in Boston, Massachusetts, USA.

ISCB is partnering with PLoS Computational Biology to invite student and jr. scientist conference attendees to report on presentations at ISMB 2010 for publication in PLoS Computational Biology as part of an article summarizing the conference. This program is referred to as PLoS Postcards, and the reporting authors clearly identify the presentation author and title. Information on the PLoS Postcards submissions being solicited can be viewed here: <http://www.iscb.org/ismb2010-program/plos-postcards>

PLoS Postcards authors whose conference reports are published in PLoS Computational Biology retain the same copyrights as authors who publish their work in an open access publication and irrevocably license the work according to the Creative Commons Attribution License (see <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/2.0/legalcode> for full text of the license) allowing any third party to redistribute and use the reported information, subject to the condition that proper attribution be given whenever the work is reproduced or redistributed.

Your permission to allow PLoS Computational Biology to publish a PLoS Postcard about your presentation is greatly appreciated. By signing below you irrevocably grant your permission to make your ISMB presentation (oral or poster) accessible for review by conference attendees for the purpose of including it in a PLoS Postcards report. Your permission is not a guarantee that your presentation will be written about, nor that any submitted PLoS Postcard written about your presentation will be published in PLoS Computational Biology.

ISCB respectfully requests that you complete, sign and return this form by June 30, 2010 regarding your ISMB 2010 presentation to either allow or deny permission as described in this permission request letter.

Thank you,

BJ Morrison McKay
ISCB Executive Officer
